

Quarterly meeting

June 9 2020

Our first fully remotely accessible quarterly meeting

CHARITY
IT LEADERS

Welcome and housekeeping – Dan Hall, Chair

- Welcome to all our delegates and speakers, and to our Platinum sponsors, Exponential-e
- Zoom housekeeping:
  - Please change your Zoom name to show your first name and organisation
  - If you need to leave the meeting, please quit Zoom and then jump back in when you're ready
  - Please mute during the presentations to avoid background noise and feedback
  - Please use the raised hand emoji or the chat if you have any questions or comments
  - We will be recording the speaker sessions

Forthcoming dates and events

- Charity IT Leaders:
  - September quarterly meeting – 11 September
  - Annual Conference – October 8 & 9
  - December quarterly meeting – 3 December
- External events and activities
  - Agile Leadership Development Programme – details to be sent out this week.
Starting Friday 26 June

BLACK
LIVES
MATTER

At Charity IT Leaders

Charity IT Leaders needs you

- Membership renewals
  - Our community matters more than ever
  - We are stronger together
  - We are a charity and a membership organisation
  - Please renew now. Email tree.hall@charityitleaders.org.uk if you need to discuss your membership
- Call to action:
  - Conference speakers
  - Case studies for quarterlies
  - Trustees

20 in 20 campaign

- We are 20 years old this month!
- Starting our 20 in 20 campaign
- New logo for the campaign
- Running until December 31 2020
- More information will be sent out in the newsletter

Agenda

- 1:15 to 1.35 – Exponential-e How MSPs can be innovative when procuring digital services – Henry Pepperall, Exponential-e
- 1:35 to 1:45 – Breakout collaboration and networking session
- 1:45 to 2:05 – How to be a good customer - Sean Norris, Leading Resolutions
- 2:05 to 2.20 – Breakout collaboration and networking session
- 2:20 to 2:40 – Three Ps to tackle human rights issues in supply chains – Cristian Martin, London School of Economics
- 2:40 to 2:55 – Breakout collaboration and networking session
- 2:55 to 3:15 – Buying IT, a procurement perspective on how procurement and IT can best collaborate - Andrew Roper, Salvation Army
- 3:15 to 3:20 – Thank you and roundup – Richard Bailey, trustee
- 3:20 to 4:00 – Breakout rooms for networking (if needed)

- Please note, this is the correct way to eat a cream tea; cream first, jam on top

Session one

- How MSPs can be innovative when procuring digital services
  - Henry Pepperall, Chief Finance Officer – Exponential-e

Breakout rooms

- Networking and collaboration

Session two

- How to be a good customer
  - Sean Norris, Leading Resolutions

Breakout rooms

- Networking and collaboration

Session three

- Three Ps to tackle human rights in supply chains
  - Cristian Martin, Head of Procurement – London School of Economics

Breakout rooms

- Networking and collaboration

Session four

- Buying IT – a procurement perspective on how procurement and IT can best collaborate
  - Andrew Roper, Head of Procurement – Salvation Army

Breakout rooms

- Networking and collaboration

Closing remarks

- Thank you all for coming
- Thanks to our speakers and sponsors
- Hope you enjoyed your cream tea
- If you want to stay on for more discussion and networking please do so – breakout rooms and some trustees will be available until 4pm