Welcome from our CEO

Whether you're a returning member or a new member, I'm delighted to welcome you to our unique, supportive and thriving community. Our membership is made up of IT and digital professionals from charities and not-for-profits across the UK, and they all share a common goal – to leverage the best outcomes from technology to enable their organisations to achieve more for their beneficiaries.

The challenges of hybrid working, embedding new cultures, increased numbers of cybersecurity attacks, the cost of living crisis, recruitment and retention, combined with delivering BAU, mean that technical teams are under even greater pressure.

Our purpose is to support you in enabling your organisation to operate with greater efficiency and effectiveness, to capitalise on the extensive knowledge and experience of our members, to collaborate to face the challenges and opportunities in the coming year and beyond.

At a personal level, we are proud to share knowledge, expertise, best practice and peer support. We help you connect with other members informally and through our events programme.

At an organisational level you'll benefit from access to insight, and information from our specialist sponsors, all of whom have a genuine commitment to the sector, and from exclusive offers available only to members such as our heavily discounted Delta subscription rate.

If you work in technology or digital in a not-for-profit organisation of any size, membership of Charity IT Leaders will support your professional development, at any stage of your career, and provide an unparalleled network of supportive peers.

To find out more, or to join, please contact me or Claire Jago, or complete the membership application form.
